December Theme: Generosity

December's counseling focus is Generosity.

Generosity is the act of being kind, selfless, and giving to others. Being generous can increase our overall sense of wellness. As the SC Counseling Department, we will spend the month sharing information with the students about what it means to be generous, the lasting benefits of generosity, ways to practice generosity, and more.

Holiday Note on Generosity: As this semester is drawing to a close and you celebrate the Christmas Season with your family and friends, please remember the ways that others (your family and friends) have been generous to you this year, and try to "pass on" this generosity to others who are less fortunate as well. Have a great Christmas Holiday! Dr. P
